FOOTBALL

The 1925 football season has not been particularly successful thus far, due more to misfortune than to mismanagement. The first game, with Gettysburg, was a surprise. Lehigh rallied in the last quarter, and tied the score with the Battlefield gridironites, 7-7.

The Drexel game was next on the schedule and resulted in a 38-0 victory for the Bethlehem team. This was hardly an impressive victory, as the Philadelphia school is much smaller than Lehigh.

One of the hardest fought, and possibly the "dirtiest" was the West Virginia-Wesleyan game, which resulted in a narrow margin for Lehigh. The score was 3 to 0. Although this was a real victory it was seriously marred by the fatal injuries to Charlie Prior. He was "kneed" after being tackled and the sixth vertebra fractured. Carried from the field paralyzed, he died at the hospital two weeks later.

A natural gloom settled on the Brown and White supporters, while Charlie lay helpless at St. Lukes'. But in spite of this handicap, Rutgers was defeated 7-0, upon a field of liquid turf at New Brunswick.

House-Party weekend, Muhlenberg defeated the weakened Lehigh team 9-7. The tactics and play of the local team were poor, affording excellent opportunity for the prowess of Borelli, the Allentown star.

The following Sunday, Prior succumbed to his injuries and a pall fell over the campus. The loss of this faithful exponent of Lehigh athletics through the very sports he loved so well and excelled in was keenly felt by the entire student body. The student body attended en masse the services held in the Packer Memorial Chapel the following day.

The next game with Georgetown was a surprise to all. Expecting a stiff opposition, but an even chance, the Brown and White gridders fell helpless before the Washington attack. The result was a forty to nothing victory for Georgetown. Demoralized after the first few breaks against them they weakened and fell an easy victim to their opponents. As usual the list of injured was heavy. Jack Hayes received a broken collar bone and nose, numerous others suffered painful injuries of a less serious nature.

Every game has seen an injured list of undue proportions. Prior's unfortunate fate was the climax of a baneful start. In spite of this cloud of misfortune it need hardly be said that as long as there are eleven men in college there will be a team on the field to meet Lafayette which will put every ounce of strength left into the encounter. Coach Wendal has been handicapped severely in many respects this year but his efforts have not been entirely without avail. A bad season has more than once been signaled by a strong Lafayette game.

HOUSE PARTY

What price pleasure! Attest to this adage was the preparation for that memorable weekend. Dempsey gets five hundred grand for half an hours work, but the public doesn't realize the days of hard labor preceding the afiray. Thus with house party. The feminine guests enjoy the momentary pleasures of two or three days, not considering the days of arduous labor on the part of the good brothers to make the visitors' good times possible.

Dave Fulton and Whiffle Bradford superintended the horde which chastized the rugs and caressed the hardwood floors into meek submission and glowing appearance. After yielding to the efforts of the laborers the furniture and fixtures glistened like the proverbial Dutch baby's nose. The lawn resisted the workers onslaughts in vain and the whole estate radiated smiling beauty in exchange for the beauty of the fair sex.

In quantity and quality of guests, Phi Mu was not surpassed by any fraternity at Lehigh. There were twenty girls present for the various diversions. Brothers Ted and Doc Underwood, Freddie Dorton, Whitey Wardell, Larry Kingham, Ollie Zurn, Pop Johnson and Andy Peer, of Phi Phi, were at the chapter house over the week end at various times. Most of the foregoing brothers were escorting sweet feminine creations and expressed themselves as enjoying a wonderful time in addition to marvelling at the results of the interior decorators' efforts.

The entire program officially included from Friday afternoon until Saturday evening. From four to six on Friday afternoon a tea dance was given at the Kappa Alpha Lodge and Phi Mu trooped across the road en masse. Friday evening from nine until two the sophomore Cotillion Club and the Freshman class combined in tossing a jig in the gymnasium, with the dumbbells removed, however. The hop measured up to Dean McConn's highest expectations, although the boys managed to have a good time just the same.

Saturday afternoon everyone witnessed thee Lehigh-Muhlenberg game and after the tilt repaired to the Interfraternity Tea Dance at Drown Hall. That evening was spent in dancing under the protective arm of the Arcadia at the gymnasium. House party was officially over at the stroke of twelve, when the dancing stopped, but "fantom" it yourself as Buddy is fond of misquoting.

Sunday was whiled away in the diverse manners most fitting to the mood of the parties concerned. Also "fantom" that. The vanguard of the guests departed Sunday evening.

Brother and Mrs. Stanley Thomas and Mrs. L. A. Nelson, Don's mother, chaperoned the week-end in admirable fashion. The chapter is grateful to them for their interest in its behalf. It might be said that the Sahara Desert was a whirling torrent of seething billows compared to the aridity of the entire affair. All the brothers realized that future social functions were dependent upon their behavior in this week end and behaved accordingly.

INITIATION BANQUET

This year PHI MU is changing it's principles in regard to the time of initiation of its postulants. In past years it has been the custom to initiate all new men before the Christmas holidays, but this initiation is to be postponed until after the mid-year examinations.

The reasons for changing this time honored custom of the chapter are two in number. First, we of the resident chapter do not believe that until a postulant has shown his willingness to stay in college and really be a help to the Fraternity should he be initiated into the order. Secondly, we believe that after the initiation of the postulants, they should be tendered a banquet, at which time as many of the old grads as possible are to be present to welcome the new into the order.

Briefly the plan is as follows. Initiation of the new men is to take place at the chapter house, on the 12th and 13th of February. On Saturday evening, at seven o'clock, the initiation banquet will be held in the University Room of the Hotel Bethlehem. At this meeting all of the present resident chapter, the newly initiated men, the national officers, and as many grads as can possibly make it, will be present. William G. Barthold, President of the Graduate Chapter, will act as toastmaster, and there will be numerous short speeches and remarks and words of greeting to the new men by the national officers and graduates. Fred Dorton and Ollie Zurn, of Mustard and Cheese Fame, will put over a few of their hits in a truly professional style. These are just some of the preliminary plans which have been developed, but there are to be lots more to make this banquet one that neither the old men or new men will forget for a long time. All of the resident chapter will be there, and it is our hope that many of the grads will make special efforts to be on deck for this affair also. We are proud of our new men and want them to have the pleasure of meeting you. Here is your chance and it is entirely on the chapter, financially speaking. If you intend to be present at this function, please notify either Louie Huyette or Dave Fulton at least two weeks before, so that plans can be made at the hotel to accomodate all of the "Old Guard" that may turn out. Let's all, everyone of us, pitch in and make this the peppiest and best attended chapter function that Phi Mu ever attempted.

ODE TO THE FRESHIES

By One Who Knows

Be careful, class of twenty-nine,
Don't overdo your leisure time,
Be cautious of amour or You'll burn out before your
Time has flown.
You musn't throw your soul away
On foolishness most every day,
We forgive when one's a darn fool
Still in prep school,
Now you've grown.

The senior with propriety
May seek female society
Indulge in silly tosh
In which the frosh
Shouldn't mix.
But revels Bacchanalian
Assuredly should be alien
To you a younger person
Not much worse'n
Ten and six.

Now, freshmen, don't cut up too much,
Don't love the dance and cup too much
Less fooling round with buddies
To your studies
Right about.
Forget the incidental things
That keep you from more serious things
Less flirting with the Devil,
On the level,
Cut it out.

PHI MU POSTULANTS

CLASS OF 1929

JOHN J. GEISEL, Bus.

McKeesport, Pa.

McKeesport High School:—Senior Prom Committee, Class Basketball.

Gloomy Gus, the lumber King's son, from the great open spaces of McKeesport, Pa., is the cutest frosh of the class. Johnnie's greatest thrill in life comes when he talks to his parents on long distance. The fudge and "eats" sent by his sisters make his room one of the most popular. He is a very willing worker and is rather inclined to be too serious. However, we prophesy he'll turn out to be a Stamp Collector or an anthropologist. He is unique in that he only shaves once in every six months and then only in a few selecter spots. Page Mr. Gillett.

EDWARD FAITH MCCARREN, Bus.

Philadelphia, Pa.

Germantown High School:—Sigma Kappa, Soccer (2, 3, 4); Basketball (2); Engineering Club (4); Class Senator (2, 3).

Eddie numbers among other celebrated (?) acquaintances of Corinne Griffith, whom he declares calls him just plain "Ed". Nevertheless we are inclined to believe this statement because he is a lady's man, having the smoothest curly hair and a profile that would shame Hawthorne's "Old Man of the Mountain." In a word he is the Beau Brummel of the Freshmen class. He is quite pessimistic and takes his work very seriously, so much so that it looks as if the frosh scholarship cup will bear his name. His Ford and the Soph Council are his main worries. He declares that life is just one trial after another. Cheer up, Eddie, just show the cops your policemen's suspenders and Serie may love you yet. "Gee, I wish I was a sophomore."

CHARLES HOWARD McDEVITT, B. A. Germantown, Pa.
"Butch"

Germantown Academy—Gamma Tau Delta. Pres. Varsity Club (3, 4); Football (3, 4); Basketball (2, 3, 4); Baseball (2, 3, 4); Captain (4); Bus. Manager Academy Monthly (4); Ye Primer Staff (4); President of Class (3); Vice-President (4); Prophet.

Mac, although a late arrival, has certainly been making up for lost time. "Butch" is one of the most willing and capable workers in the house. He is taking the Pre-Med course and intends entering the University of Pennsylvania after the end of the three years course here at Lehigh. He comes to us with an enviable prep school record and we are expecting great things of him. Mac's favorite expression is "Oh Hello!" and he receives more mail than any other freshman in the house. We are not quite sure yet, but he shows tendencies of running Eddie McCarren a close race for carrying off the honors as the Lady's Man.

MERRILL KEYES, Bus. Springfield, Mass.
"Windy"

Central High School—President of Class (2, 3); President of Student Welfare Board (2, 3); Chairman of Student Advisory Board (3); Football (2); Basketball (2); Baseball (2); Tennis; Debating Club (1, 2, 3); Deutsches Verein (2, 3).

Meet Doctor Merrill, who helped nearly all the freshmen pass their Social Hygiene course. He believes Havelock Ellis the greatest writer of the day. He used to sell Chryslers but he has found out that the old line of the salesman doesn't work when it comes to getting out of doing freshman duties. Merrill is quite the pool player and is daily practicing so that when the trials are held he will be able to represent Alpha Chi Rho in the Interfraternity Pool Matches. Good luck to you. He has lots of pep and is quite an organizer and should be at least president of one class before he gets his dip in five or six years. He is out for the Glee Club and also the basketball team. He will be quite successful if he does not go on any more toots to New York.

CARL WILLIAM POTTER, Ind. Eng. Hellertown, Pa.
"Rusty"

Bethlehem High School—Sigma Nu Lambda. Football (3, 4); Baseball (2, 3, 4); Basketball (3, 4); Diving Championship; Bethlehem Preparatory School; Football, Baseball, Senior Dance Committee; Scholarship to Lehigh University.

Hellertown sends its pride to bless the ranks of Lehigh. None other than Red Potter, upon whose shoulders rests the glory of the Captaincy of the Freshman football team. Red has made good at quarterback this fall and we expect the name of Red Potter to be just as famous as that of Red Grange. All he has to do is to sell ice in Northampton and Emaus this summer and he will also be receiving offers for the movies and sport magazines. Carl is the holder of a scholarship and hits his books just as hard as he hits the line of scrimmage. His temper has to be controlled more and we would like to see him smile and laugh a little more. Life isn't quite that serious. Carl. He is of the energetic type and is quite the social hound despite the fact that he is an athlete.

JOHN CHANEY REINOEHL, B. A. Germantown, Pa.
"Barney"

Germantown High School:—Freshman Track, Football (3); Secretary Ath. Man. Association (3).

Johnnie is a youth with the most grotesque sense of humor you could imagine. Any time he can be found laughing his sides out at something that is not the least bit funny. Just mention the "Mutt with the Wings" of Vanity Fair fame and he'll go into hysterics. This trait of John's is one of his sterling qualities—he always has a smile and a pleasant word for every one. John was introduced into the society of Allentown recently but after much dubitation is convinced that the Germantown girls cannot be surpassed. Onion sandwiches not purchased from the Eats Man and the building of fires in the six fire places are his favorite forms of dissipation. We are counting on John to be Phi Beta Kappa in 1929.

RAYMOND ROPER, Bus. Richmond Hill, N. Y.
"Ray"

Richmond Hill High School:—Omega Gamma Delta. Football Captain (4).

From the wilds of Long Island comes this good-natured Postulant. Ray has been spending his afternoons practising with the freshman football squad and has made a creditable showing in the few games in which he was permitted to play. In this freshman we find the only known rival of Doc Underwood in consuming all the food within reach. Ray has yet to develop an insatiable taste for butter, but we are looking forward to the day when Doc and Ray are side by each at the table. Ray has some queer synonyms, one of which is "beaking" for osculation. These New Yorkers all have one thing to learn before they leave good old Bethlehem, and that is to speak English as it is spoken by the 400 here in the Steel City.

ALFRED RUSSELL, Bus.

"Al"

Richmond Hill High School:—Omega Gamma Delta; Football (3) Manager (4); Swimming (2, 3); Ice Hockey (3); Ass't. Manager Basketball (3); President Chemical Club (4); Domino Staff (3); Track (2); Baseball (1).

Allie is not a heller with the women but develops his ideas more along the athletic line. He is quite a swimmer and is learning the various rudiments of the wrestling game so that next year he will be in a position to hold down a regular varsity berth in the 158 pound class. Richmond Hill, it is said, is proud of this lad at least that's what Willie says and he ought to know. He is head of the freshmen class in the house and is proving a capable leader. Honesty, earnestness and a willingness to always do anything to help somebody else out are the dominant factors in his character.

WESLEY HUGHES SEATON, C. E.

Oil City Pa.

"Wes"

Cushing Academy:—Football (3); Glee Club (4); Science Club Treasurer (4); Comrade Club (4).

The Oil Country claims this fair lad. For a short time it seemed he would equal "Louie's" week-ending record, hard as that may seem. Wes doesn't care for Bethlehem girls so he set out to crash a Cedar Crest dance one Saturday night. The only trouble he didn't get there but got lost some-where on the way. Another one of those cases where one was detained, only it wasn't a Beauty Pageant this time. Wes has a very pleasing personality and unless we miss our guess by miles, in four years he will be one of the "smooth seniors" we hear so much about these days.

THOMAS F. STORM, E. E.

Pottstown, Pa.

"Tom"

The Hill School:—Varsity Football (3, 4); Varsity Track (3, 4); Debating Club; Scholarship Honors

This retiring and bashful son of Pottstown has already emerged on a social and athletic career that is far surpassing any of our expectations. Tom isn't much in a crowd but when you get him alone—OH—OH! His female friends are continually bestowing gifts upon Tom all of which he receives with the greatest of pleasure. We have heard indirectly that he just has to beat off the girls when he walks down the main street of his home town. He has quite an artistic taste and a natural gift of being even-tempered. He is out for the art competition of the Burr and is sure to make the board. Due to an injury to his foot his football season was rather unsuccessful, but next season he has hopes of capturing a varsity berth. He is going to get in touch with Larry Kingham and get some pointers on how to gyp some money from the students, as he is treasurer of the Freshmen class. Be sure and do it like a gentleman though Tom.

Richmond Hill High School:—Soccer (3); Radio Club.

Ha Ha Hark! His footsteps approach. The only and exact duplicate of Calvin Coolidge of the class. Walt has a keen sense of humor and his dry remarks send Jack Allen into one of those hysterical spells which fairly rock the house. He is out for the Brown and White and is doing excellent work in the competition and is almost assured a position on the editorial board. In studies he stands among the possible Tau Bets in the class. He is very much taken up with the class in M. S. & T. and hopes someday to add fame to Richmond Hill by heading an Armistice day parade in the capacity of a shave-tail. He is easily recognized by the boil on his neck and the sobriety of his facial expression.

ALPHA CHI RHO CONVENTION

The convention this year will be held at Philadelphia under the auspices of Phi Phi chapter. In view of the proximity of the function to the chapter here and the central location of the town for the benefit of the grads Phi Mu should be well represented. In fact there seems to be no legitimate reason why the cup offered for attendance by chapters should not shed its silver sheen upon the interior of the chapter house at Bethlehem. If the grads will do their part we are assured of a large delegation from the house and we can put this little coup across handily.

There is one feature that deserves especial mention. That is the fact that Jack Fagan is in charge of the preparations at Philadelphia. Enough said. For any special information he can be reached at 509 Federal Street, Camden, N. J.

Full plans have not as yet reached us but for some reason or other we are willing to wager that Phi Phi will put over an excellent convention. There is another important fact. The graduate chapter will have its meeting during the course of the convention. It is highly important that all be present at the pow-wow. The graduate chapter has shown remarkable signs of life recently and Ike Bush promises a lively time. We would love to have a twin for the Quota cup we possess now, so don't forget—Philadelphia on February 18-20.

J. JOSEPH MOCLAIR

John Joseph Moclair was born, in 1904, in New York City. He received secondary education there and graduated from Dwight School in 1923. At that institution he was a member of the baseball team and the president of the senior class.

In the Fall of 1923 he entered the College of Business Administration at Lehigh University. In November he was initiated into Alpha Chi Rho. He was well known about the campus because of his winning personality and diverse activities. He was upon the business staff of the Burr, a member of the chorus of the annual show of the Mustard and Cheese Club and was in the managerial competition for basketball.

During mid-terms he left for a short visit to his parents, complaining of a slight cold. Upon reaching home he was taken ill with pneumonia. The attack was severe and he succumbed within a few days. His death occurred upon February second.

By this event the Fraternity lost one of its best. Joe was a real companion, ambitious persistent, in his endeavors and a scholar above all. He was filled with a religious feeling of great depth and sincerity. To Moclair, as a Man and as a Brother, we can pay no greater tribute than to record the feeling of profound sorrow left by his death in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

FRANK P. FLANAGAN

The Brothers of Phi Mu were greatly shocked last Spring when they learned of the sudden death of Frank P. Flanagan, '21. The loss of Brother Pat is a great one for our chapter as he was one of our most faithful Brothers. Brother Pat was all that the Fraternity stands for and was sincerely loved by all the Brothers who knew him. His death makes the third Phi Mu Brother who has passed to the Great Beyond. The Brothers of Phi Mu extend their deepest sympathy to his relatives and especially to dear little Pat, Jr., who has been left in this world without a mother or a father.

Pat's death occurred on March 10 of this year and came after only a few days of illness. He was taken sick on the day of his mother's death, March 2. and was rushed to the hospital, where the physicians announced that he was stricken with pneumonia. He sunk quickly and a few days later the doctors stated that appendicitis had set in. Pat, however, was too weak for an operation and nothing could be done for him.

Pat was born at Eckman, West Virginia, on September 15, 1897, and was the son of P. P. and Mary (Keating) Flannagan. He first attended Catholic University in Washington, but entered Lehigh in 1916 after one year at that college. His family by that time had moved to Roanoke, Virginia, and Pat, with "Dickey" Schubert and "Bert" Bottomley, formed the original "Alpha Chi Rhoanoke."

Phi Mu, at the time of Pat's arrival, was Theta Delta Psi and Pat, after joining this local, became one of the charter members of Phi Mu when he was initiated April 5, 1918. Pat left after two years at Lehigh and returned in the Fall of 1919 to finish his course. In the meantime he was married to Emma Guyn, who died in the Spring of 1922, less than a year after Brother Flanagan was graduated with the class of '21. A boy, Frank P., Jr., was born on January 6, 1921 and survives both parents.

Death brought to an abrupt end a very brilliant career for Brother Pat. After spending several years in the coal regions of West Virginia, at turned his attention to the building game and was very successful in Florida. At the time of his death he was engaged in the construction of a two-million-dollar hotel at Miami Beach and he had just completed a $500,000 church before beginning the other project.

Pat will be long remembered in the ranks of Phi Mu for his devotion to and interest in his Fraternity. Pat held the position of Chapter Correspondent in his Sophomore year, 'Is in his Sophomore and Junior years, and 'I during his last year. Aside from his regular studies, Pat also held the office of Associate Manager of Basketball and was deeply interested in the Mining Society.

Pat was conspicuous in Alpha Chi Rho, as well as Theta Delta Psi for his earnest and capable performance of his duties in the various ritual offices. He was possessed of a splendid disposition and his wonderful character caused him to stand out as one of the finest of Alpha Chi Rho.

BUSH TEAMS A PUNCH WITH GARDY'S JUDY

The Graduate Chapter Secretary-Treasurer has requested and has been cheerfully granted this space in Musings, in order that several matters of importance may be delineated as follows and to wit:

GRADUATE CHAPTER MEETINGS—Semi-annual gatherings—The first at the Lehigh-Lafayette Game week-end, the second at The National Convention. Plan now to attend every meeting, henceforth, and the festive occasions in which they are set. There were twenty of us at the last meeting, on Washington's Birthday, at the Phi Mu House; Slim Rau, Skip Vreeland, Bob Cook, Muggsy Magee, 1917; Hank Shockley, Syl Fritchman, 1918; Walt Woolley, Ike Bush, 1919; Al Gardy, 1920; Jake Jagels, Chippy Drew, Buck Snavelly, 1922; Doc Underwood, Clem Fretz, Judy Gardy, Al Johnson, Kusel Kramer, 1923; Ted Underwood, Rod Hauser, 1924; and Zip Parker, 1928. What a wonderful meeting we had! Let us make them all never-to-be-forgotten events—BE THERE.

MUSINGS—Some of you, on receiving this issue, will suddenly remember that you have pigeon-holed Judy Gardy's letter. The moment spent in sending in the notes, for which Judy has been and is plugging so hard, does not nearly balance with the hours of regret and remorse which you experience later on if you have failed him. Our Graduate Editor has worked like a Trojan—buck up and give him a lift; and, do not neglect that old battered and moth-eaten conscience—come clean with at least One Dollar every year; you want Musings and Musings must pay the Printer. The National Secretary, The Garnet and White, the Resident Chapter, the Grad. Secretary, the Graduate Editor and practically every Brother are interested in YOU—hence, inasmuch as the greater part of their contact with you must necessarily be through the mails, it becomes of vital importance that all concerned be advised of your change of address as quickly as possible. Even now, some few of us are listed as Lost—It is your duty to be Found and to stay Found. Make use of the Directory in this issue of Musings—write regularly to all your intimate acquaintances among the Brothers and to the Resident Chapter is, we must keep in closer touch with one another, and the Directory puts it clearly up to YOU. Musings and The Garnet and White want to publish real News, not Ancient History—do not wait to be solicited for items of interest about yourself and other Brothers; do not rely on another Brother to write you up—you will not be regarded as egotistical or boastful if you simply supply information about yourself. Remember that "He that bloweth not his own horn, the same shall not be blown," particularly in the case of a scattered band like ours. Some day an old, old man, whose Father was one of Phi Mu's own, will read, in the then current issue of Musings, that he was born and was a fine fat little rascal, and thus verify his suspicions to that effect—we will be very much interested to read of his birth, NOW.

Did you hear Bill Barthold's speech at the Convention Banquet? You didn't? Well, you missed something real. The reports on the Convention in The Garnet and White were excellent, but one must be present to get the fine spirit, the friendly personal touch and joyful kick out of Alpha Chi Rho's annual "mob scene." Read and reread The Labarum, The Garnet and White and Musings—get in touch and keep in touch with the rapid progress of Alpha Chi Rho, the capable administration which our National Officers are giving us and the splendid achievements of our own Phi Mu Chapter. Then, when you get to a meeting or greet a Brother, you will not need to exhibit the old blank and glassy stare if asked a few questions or informed of some new Fraternity development.

Your Secretary-Treasurer will very soon supply you with additional reading matter and a complete financial statement.

SCHOLARSHIP AT PHI MU

The resident chapter, while not at the bottom of scholarship ranking, realizes that great improvement can be effected, and is taking steps to secure such results. The logical method of attack was to eliminate past causes of poor scholarship, while encouraging future efforts.

Upon analyzing the situation two causes were discovered and remedied. First the inherent arrangement of the house is detrimental to effective work. This has been corrected by efficient work on the part of the House Chief and the Scholarship Committee. Furthermore, those who caused the poor record last year were removed by the strict faculty rules.

As a measure of prevention every effort is being concentrated toward influencing Freshmen toward superior scholarship. A large cup was secured by the Chapter this Fall and will have the name of the highest ranking Freshman inscribed upon it. This cup is to be the permanent possession of the Fraternity, but will have the name of the successful scholar engraved upon it from year to year. This should prove an additional incentive toward the achievement of high grades by the first year men.

In view of our efforts the Chapter is proud to announce the pledging of Leroy Brown to Tau Beta Pi, the honorary engineering fraternity at Lehigh. Phi Mu is confident that its record for scholarship during the ensuing year will be one that will make Alpha Chi Rho proud of it.

DOINGS OF OUR GRADS

Faithful Jake Reitzel was the first to come back with a reply this time. He reports that he is now Industrial Engineer with the Eastern Steel Casting Company, of Newark, N. J., instead of the Crocker-Wheeler Company. He also reports that Sue Elizabeth will be just about a year old when this magazine reaches your hands. Jake closes with this: "Screens and awnings must come down; rose bushes to be packed with straw; garage should have another coat of paint; radio needs attention, etc. Otherwise haven't much to do."

Mugsy Magee has also taken a new job. On October first, Frank took over the management of the Albany office of the Aluminum Company. Mugsy says that his chief regret about leaving East Orange is the loss of his golf partner, Skipper Vreeland. Mugsy has nothing on us—we have lost him, too, as our letter brought no response from him. Best of luck, Frank, in your new venture.

Only a line came from Mason Turner, whose supply of news must be at low tide now. However, Mace says that he'll be back in college in February.

Whitey Wardell is really using his "line" to hang clothes on, as manager of his mother's laundry in East Orange. He reports that he thinks he's going to be able to stand work after four years of loafing. Whitey has been back to Lehigh, or rather Bethlehem, a number of times this Fall and from all we can learn, his future has been settled. We don't know if Whitey would want us to print what we know or not.

We have been warned to watch out for Larry Kingham, and we pass the warning on to the other Brothers. Larry is behind the necktie counter at L. Bamberger and Company, Newark, and so far he says he has had visits from a number of Brothers and has "hooked" them. He doesn't report that he is also selling bonds, but we got it from a reliable source and so we are on the lookout. Larry aims to soon become a buyer for the "largest department store in Newark."

The Brothers will be very grieved to learn of the death of Hank Shockley's son this Fall. Hank is still with the Phoenix Stone Company in Virginia.

Ike Cook is married and living in Brooklyn. He is with the Prudential Life Insurance Company in Newark.

Tom Cooke had his stenographer fill out his report with these few words of information: "Working in bond department of Century Trust Company, Baltimore." Of course, Tom had to put "work" in there to fool his stenog but he didn't fool us. Glad to hear from you, though, Cook-E!

Al Johnson is doing the same old thing in the same old way and so he didn't use much ink. He still resides in Bethlehem and breaks circuits for Roller-Smith. Al is seen quite often at the new house and admires it a lot.

Despite the heavy rain and wind storm during Fair Week, Al Gardy still "reigns." (If it isn't cleveer, don't laugh). Business apparently is good, for Al, on June 3rd of this year, was married to Miss Geraldine Louise Buckman, of Chestnut Hill. Al is living in an apartment in Doylestown and runs his printing business. In addition to that he takes care of the Fair and coaches the high school basketball team. He has been known to eat at times, too.

Dixie Walker has also joined the Benedicts. June 30 was the date and Miss Jessie E. Engler, of Bethlehem, the girl. They are now living in Philadelphia, where Dix is engaged in subway work with the Keystone State Construction Company. Dix plans, since getting his E. M. degree, to get into the mining game just as soon as he is able. He says that he sees the Honorable Brothers Hursh and Zurn quite often.

Phil Israel is still as brief as ever. "Still single and still happy," is all he says. From elsewhere we learn that he is living at his home in Laurel and working in the Washington office of the Worthington Pump and Machine Corporation.

Jake Jagels remains the pillar of R. H. Macy in New York. He gives us some other news that we wouldn't have gotten elsewhere. He says that he met Bill Barthold at the Pennsylvania Grill with a charming damsel, wearing a diamond ring on the fourth finger of the left hand. This information, tacked to the news from Bethlehem that he is buying a house in the Edgeboro section, makes us draw some conclusions of which Bill has told us nothing. How about it, Bill? Jake also tells us that Buck Snively left quite recently for South America, where, it is reported, he has a splendid opportunity. Wish Buck had given us more details, but we wish him success.

Charlie Israel, even though he doesn't write letters, sends this message: "At present busy on 'Velocity of Flame Propagation in Combustible Stagnant Gases.' Also busy studying for 're' in Non-Ferrous Met. which is a between me and Ch. E., FUTURE UNKNOWN." Charlie visits the house once in a while between his laboratory sessions and still spends his week-ends in Germantown.

We got a nice long letter from "Oily" Zurn. He explains that his endeavor at present is to spread Zurnoil on the torrentulous waters of the business world, and thus cause them to calm down. Ollie has been traveling in the vicinity of Atlantic City for his father and has "struck a number of the Brothers at different times. During his travels he met Brad Hooper and counted him among his victims. Ollie closed with the announcement that he was enclosing a little "fuel oil" for MUSINGS.

Judy Gardy is the new Editor of the Hatboro PUBLIC SPIRIT. He left Media during the Summer and is now living at home and commuting to his Hatboro job. Judy was recently elected President of the Doylestown Theatre Guild and is working every spare minute on three one-act plays which will be given during the first week of December.

Jim Conroy, who has been seen very little since he left Lehigh, paid a visit to Judy Gardy in Doylestown just recently. And Judy pumped a lot of news out of Jim. First and most important, Jim will be back for the Lafayette game. Next, Jim is handling two jobs in Burlington at once. He is State Chemist for the Department of Agriculture in the day time and at night, Jim, who is president of the Service Drug Company, takes charge of the store. Jim also put it in writing that he was married on December 25, 1923, to Miss Emma Ditzell, of Waterloo, N. Y. The ceremony took place in Burlington.

You'll be surprised when you learn that our old friend, whom we thought was lost, Don Richards, has turned up in Scranton as a member of the reporting staff of the SCRANTON TIMES. Don got a degree from Bethlehem Prep in 1923 and we expected him back at Lehigh the following Fall, but his plans were changed and he took up writing. Don still has the old spirit, as this paragraph from his letter is evidence: "I received the October number of the GARNET AND WHITE today and it is needless to say how I felt after reading of the graduation of Asty, Larry, Dorton and the rest."

Our letter to Walt Greacen came back, but Whitey Wardell sent us word of his whereabouts. He is on the road for the Edge Moor Iron Company, of Wilmington, Del. Whitey attended Walt's wedding which occurred on October 3, when Miss Eleanor McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. McKnight, of 200 Midland Avenue, Glen Ridge, N. J., became his bride. Write us a line now and then, Walt!

News of Freddie Dorton can best be gained from his letter, which is written in his inimitable manner: "Greetings from a recent entrant into the ranks of the multitude who cry out in a loud voice saying, 'Now, when I was in college,' and 'Those were the good old days.' No real live news about myself. I'm doing sales survey for the Edison Lamp Works all over the map—never know where I go next. Very much unmarried, unengaged and unloved! I am out to win the trophy for Phi Mu class of '25 oldest living bachelor."

Q Kramer emphasizes one fact in his nice long letter. He is through with the automobile business forever. His business has shut down and Q is now employed as Safety Engineer for the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. The work is a combination of office and plant work, Q says, "with enough of each to make you feel glad to get back to the other again." Because of a death in the family, Ku was unable to join the Underwoods, Judy Gardy, Ike Bush, Al Johnson and Whitey Wardell at a little visit to Phi Mu over the week-end of the West Virginia Wesleyan game. We were sorry not to see him, but Q can be counted on for the Lafayette game, just as you can always count on an answer for MUSINGS, as well as his contribution.

We learn that the International Motor Company is about to fail as Ike Bush has removed himself and his valuable services. Ike writes that he is now busy preparing a biography, "The Life of Reilly," preparatory to taking over a new position. Ike has been very faithful in his new position of Secretary of the Graduate Chapter and the hearty thanks of the Brothers should be accorded him.

Bob Cook spent five weeks of last Summer in Europe on an official visit to steel plants in France, Belgium, Germany and England for the Bethlehem Steel. Bob also fraternized with "F" Israel in Cleveland on the occasion of the Steel Treathers' Convention there this Fall.

The report reaches us, from others than Al himself, that the Barthold dude was in Bethlehem recently, looking like a million, accompanied by pleasant female company to help him spend it.

Asty writes from Chicago where "men are and and women are governors," he says. Asty is in the commercial paper business, which is to borrow money from banks on the notes of the companies' wanting money. Francis points out that his business has nothing to do with stationery. Asty also says that he has been unsuccessful in locating Tow Phipps, and from other sources we learn that Tow was recently in Willow Grove having his tonsils removed.

Broze Underwood penned a newsy epistle under a recent date. In part it reads: "Ted still telephoning; Doc still compensating; Whitey still washing; Freddie still lamping; and Larry still vamping. Ed Gould is living in a $100,000 house; Chippy Drew is back in the woods; and Buck has gone to South America. (signed) Siamese Triplets."

Banker Rice responded from West Palm Beach, Florida, where he is in the Field Department of Carr and McFadden, Civil Engineers. Hughie also reports that our long-lost Bert Bottomley, the Bolshevik, is working for the same company in the Drafting Department. Wouldn't mind, Banker, if you'd stir Bert into dropping us a line. Hugh says this of Florida: "A lot of the Brothers would be in Florida now if they could only realize the opportunities that are here. If any of you want information, write to me and I'll give you the real dope. However, the only real way is to find out, is to come and see for yourself."

Fritch, for the first time since we can remember, didn't answer our letter. But we know something about him and will make up for his first mistake. He is still in the Commercial Department of the Bell of Pennsylvania and is now living in his new home in Haddonfield, N. J.

Eddie Fincke is still selling bonds for his dad, we learn from friends. How about writing to us, Eddie?

Whiffle Bradford, Don Nelson and Bud Campbell constitute the triad of Phi Moravian. They are living at the house and hope to be back in Lehigh after mid-terms

Newt Cox finally decided to let us hear from him and we got a nice long letter with lots of "dope." Since we saw Newt last a lot of things have happened to him. As soon as Newt left the environs of Lehigh, he set about looking for a job. He got connected with the city sales department of the Atlantic Refining Company and is still with them in Philadelphia. Business must have been pretty good during the Fall of 1923, for Newt and Miss Irene A. Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Gilbert, of 5332 Walton Avenue, Philadelphia, decided to make a partnership and the contract was signed on November 28. On September 25, 1924, the new boss, in the person of Irene Mary, put in her appearance. Newt reports that he has seen quite a bit of Charlie Israel, Eddie Fincke and Frank Chesterman. Fritch also stopped by and Newt says that he bumped into Westy one day in Philly. Newt laments the fact that he has never seen Lehigh trim Lafayette and say he is going to try and get back to the game. There are a lot in the same boat, Newt, and we'll be looking for you.

Someone bumped into Buck Howser in Philly one day, too, and he told the bumper that he was in the Philadelphia Sales Department of the Real Silk Hosiery Company. From all reports, Buck has made good. He is living in the Madrid Apartments.

Walt Woolley writes that he is still getting 21 meals per week and hopes to maintain the average during the winter. He reports that Wallie Fry is now head of the Fry Merchantile Credit Co., of Asbury Park. He also tells us that Fred deWysocki is in the coal business at Point Pleasant, N. J. Yoo-hoo, Freddie, you know us, don't you?

Hop Todd holds the position of Industrial Engineer in New London, Conn., having gone there recently from Newark. He and his wife are living at Stonington, Conn., nearby, and are very happy.

Parker is working in a New York bank at present. Bogs paid us a visit during rushing season, and promised to get back often. How about a permanent visit, H. C.?

Higginbottom, The Lost, returned for nearly a week this Summer. He has been to Brown, worked in New York, and when last seen was en route for his parent's home in Baltimore. Higgins expected to get back this Fall but has not materialized so far.

Rod Hauser dropped in during rushing season, and at that time, was still engaged in the shoe business in Allentown

Jim Hursh put one over on the class of '25 last April, when he married Miss Elizabeth Ann Bacon, of Bethlehem. The marriage took place in Maryland, and was kept secret for some time until the public announcement was made in Bethlehem. Jim and his wife are now living in the Parkview Apartments on Walnut Lane, Philadelphia.

Rus Laughlin was seen last this Summer. He expected to tour Europe and enter Wharton, at Penn, this Fall. The boys have been looking for him every week-end but he must have forgotten the road from Philly.
